Yo-San Studio, LCC Supports Regional Charities and Foundations

Caleb and Sanders donate accessories and apparel for charity auctions

January 19, 2009--Fort Collins

Donated scarves, 2008

Founders of Yo-San Studio, LCC continue their tradition of donating accessories and apparel for charitable auctions. In 2008 the company donated hand knit scarves an event sponsored by The Savoy Brasserie for the Larimer County Animal Shelter and Open Door Mission, Hunter's Hope silent auction to fund research for Hemophilia, and a fundraiser by NOVO Restoration and Tenfold Collective for The Loveland Feed & Grain Historic Architectural Restoration project.

Caleb and Sanders participated in the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation funder fashion show in Denver, Colorado for three years. The duo created five formal wear ensembles during the three year period that were auctioned off to raise monies funds for research and treatment of cystic fibrosis, the number one killer of children and young adults. The gowns were created from materials generously donated by Denver design community's showrooms. In October 2001, the design team created Jazz Trio, which consisted of three evening ensembles of red silk shantung along with headdresses for the Cystic Fibrosis fundraiser entitled Notables. Cara de Picasso was created and auctioned in 2002, Masterpieces Cystic Fibrosis event. The ensemble was a one shoulder silk shantung dress and caplet with appliquéd abstract face reminiscent of Picasso's paintings. November 2003, Magnolia, a strapless cocktail dress of silk shantung with overlaid skirt, was created for the last Cystic Fibrosis fashion show fundraiser entitled Four Seasons.

Philanthropy will continue to be a priority of Yo-San Studio employees during the 2009 year of change.
